The Scranton Times has the following to say of the Maude Hillman Co., which is booked to appear at the Castle Park theatre next week. "The Maude Hillman Co. opened a week's engagement at the Academy last night to one of the largest houses of the season. 'A Broken Heart' was the play presented and it is possessed of many beautiful and touching situations and has a plot of considerable depth. Miss Hillman, who is a very clever actress, has surrounded herself with a capable company. Several high class specialties were introduced, and judging from the amount of applause, the company made a decided hit. We predict for them crowded houses during the balance of week."

The Daylight Store

WE USUALLY ADVERTISE TO HELP THE SALE OF DRY GOODS.

This time we are asking you all to attend our special Free Musical Concert to be given by Gilbertson's Orchestra on Saturday evening from 6:30 until 8:15. (Please notice the time, as it is earlier than usual.)

Gilbertson's Orchestra

Will furnish special music on this occasion. Bring your friends—yes, gentlemen friends—and enjoy an hour and a half of this musical concert, one of the best that will be given in Barre this season.

Gilbertson's Orchestra

Will play music that is catchy, pleasing and the kind that will be appreciated by those wishing to hear popular and classical music well rendered.

Gilbertson's Orchestra.

We are not advertising anything in the way of Dry Goods to sell you. We want you to feel that these concerts are free in every sense of the word—that you can attend with your family or friends and not be asked to purchase goods.

You may buy your Dry Goods of others and come just as welcome to these concerts.
